THURSDAY, JANUARY 5, 1769.

LONDON, November 8.

This day his Majesty came to the House of Peers, and being in his royal robes seated on the Throne with the usual solemnity, was pleased to make the following most gracious SPEECH:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

THE opportunity which the late general election gives me of knowing, from their representatives in parliament, the more immediate sense of my people, has made me desirous of meeting you as early as could be, consistent with your own convenience. The shortness of the last session of the late parliament prevented their prosecuting the consideration of those great commercial interests, which had been entered upon in the preceding session. You will, I am persuaded, agree with me in opinion, that your deliberations on those very important objects, ought to be resumed without loss of time; and I trust that they will terminate in such measures, as may be productive of the most considerable and essential benefits to this nation.

It would have given me great satisfaction to have been able to acquaint you, that all the other powers of Europe had been as careful, as I have ever been, to avoid taking any step that might endanger the general tranquility. I have constantly received, and do still receive from them, the strongest assurances of their pacific disposition towards this country. No assurances, however, shall divert my constant resolution, stedfastly to attend to the general interests of Europe; nor shall any consideration prevail upon me to suffer any attempt that may be made, derogatory to the honour and dignity of my crown, or injurious to the rights of my people.

At the close of the last parliament, I expressed my satisfaction at the appearances which then induced me to believe, that such of my subjects, as had been misled in some part of my dominions, were returning to a just sense of their duty. But it is with equal concern, that I have since seen that spirit of faction, which I had hoped was well nigh extinguished, breaking out afresh in some of my colonies in North America; and, in one of them, proceeding even to acts of violence, and of resistance to the execution of the law; the capital town of which colony appears, by late advices, to be in a state of disobedience to all law and government; and has proceeded to measures subversive of the constitution, and attended with circumstances that manifest a disposition to throw off their dependance on Great-Britain. On my part, I have pursued every measure that appeared to be necessary for supporting the constitution, and inducing a due obedience to the authority of the legislature. You may rely upon my steady perseverance in these purposes: and I doubt not but that, with your concurrence and support, I shall be able to defeat the mischievous designs of those turbulent and seditious persons, who, under false pretences, have but too successfully deluded numbers of my subjects in America; and whose practices, if suffered to prevail, cannot fail to produce the most fatal consequences to my colonies immediately, and, in the end, to all the dominions of my crown.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

The proper estimates for the service of the ensuing year I have ordered to be laid before you; fully relying on your readiness to grant me the necessary supplies. Indeed I cannot have a doubt of finding, in this House of Commons, the same steady constant attachment to my person and government as I have always hitherto experienced from my faithful Commons.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

It is with great satisfaction that I find myself enabled to rejoice with you, upon the relief, which the poorer sort of my people are now enjoying, from the distress which they had so long laboured under from the high price of corn. At the same time that we are bound devoutly to acknowledge, in this instance, the gracious interposition of providence, it will become us to apply the best precautions that human wisdom can suggest, for guarding against the return of the late calamity. In the choice, however, of proper means for that purpose, you cannot proceed with too great circumspection.

I have nothing further to recommend to you, than that in all your deliberations you keep up a spirit of harmony among yourselves. Whatever differences of opinion may prevail in other points, let it appear, that wherever the interest of your country is immediately concerned, you are all ready to unite. Such an example from you cannot fail of having the best effects upon the temper of my people, in every part of my dominions; and can only produce that general union among ourselves, which will render us properly respected abroad, and happy at home.

RUN AWAY,

ABOUT three months ago, a likely NEGRO FELLOW, named SAM, a little pock-pitted, and speaks very good English, his feet remarkably short and thick, and his great toes stand wide from the others, and turn towards each other very much; is well known in Charles-Town, and in many different parts of the province: He used to be some times employed about fetching timber and wood, and has a general acquaintance with boat negroes and fishermen; has been once in England, and it is not improbable that he may attempt to get off in some vessel, it is therefore hoped, that all masters of vessels and of coasting scooners will be cautious that there is no strange Negro harboured or employed without a ticket. He has a wife at Captain Lempriere's, and has been seen at different times in Christ-Church parish, where it is supposed he is harboured; he has likewise been seen in Charles-Town. Whoever will take said negro, and deliver him to the warden of the work-house, or to me in Charles-Town, shall have SIX DOLLARS reward, from

SOUTH-CAROLINA.

By his Excellency the Right Honourable Lord CHARLES GREVILLE MONTAGU, Captain-General, Governor, and Commander in Chief, in and over his Majesty's said Province, and Vice-Admiral of the same.

A Proclamation,

WHEREAS His Majesty, by his Order in Council, bearing date the 7th Day of October last, has been graciously pleased to signify to me, that having taken into his Royal Consideration, an Act of Assembly, passed in this Province in April last, intituled, "An Act for establishing Courts, building Goals, and appointing Sheriffs and other Officers, for the more convenient Administration of Justice in this Province;" he had been pleased, with the Advice of his most honourable Privy Council, to reject the same: I DO THEREFORE issue this my Proclamation, hereby notifying the same.

GIVEN under my Hand and the Great Seal of the said Province, at Charles-Town, this 28th Day of December, 1768, and in the Ninth Year of his Majesty's Reign.

C. G. MONTAGU.

By his Excellency's Command,
THOMAS SHOTTOWE, Secr.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

LONDON, October 18.

A CERTAIN Gentleman of the law, having expressed himself very freely in a late city assembly, his friends imagine he will once more feel the resentment of the higher powers.

Oct. 20. This morning some dispatches of importance were received at the Secretary of State's office from the court of Versailles.

Before Britain appears openly in the aid of Corsica, some late proclamations from the throne will be revoked.

Yesterday advice was received that the King of Denmark landed at Calais on Friday evening in perfect health.

Yesterday a very great council was held at St. James's, when the several intended changes in the ministry, it is said, were settled.

Yesterday the Earl of Shelburne resigned his place to his Majesty as Secretary of State for the Southern department.

An eminent Sage in the law, it's confidently affirmed, will not part with his office, unless he is actually turned out.

A celebrated minister who has just resigned, in his letter of resignation, expresses great concern for the late removal of an American Governor.

We hear orders are given for several merchant ships to be taken up in the river on government contract, to serve as transports for six months, but to what quarter of the globe is at present uncertain.

Whitehall, October 22. The King, on the resignation of the right hon. the Earl of Shelburne, has been pleased to deliver the seals of the Southern department to the right hon. Lord Viscount Weymouth, and to appoint the right hon. the Earl of Rochford, principal secretary of state for the Northern.

London, October 22. The Lord Chancellor has not, and, it is said, will not resign.

The Solicitor-General will therefore remain.

The candidates for the Privy Seal (according to report) are, the Duke of Grafton, the Duke of Marlborough, and Earl Gower.

It is said, that so general is the inclination to assist Corsica, that nothing can prevent our taking part in that quarrel, but a shower of French pistoles at the West end of the town.

October 27. Sir George Macartney is appointed to the office of Joint Paymaster of Ireland, in the room of Col. Barré, that gentleman having resigned.

In half an hour after the arrival of the packet from New-York was publickly known at the 'Change, the stocks fell one and an half per cent.

It is remarked with concern that there are at present, more merchant ships in the river exposed for sale, than at any time since the conclusion of the late war.

October 29. 'Tis thought that several persons will be ordered from America, to give an account of their conduct to an august assembly.

Some very intelligent people say, there will be a million asked for next session; 600,000l. of which to be applied to make good the deficiencies in the civil list.

A certain N————n has declared that no more changes will take place in the A——n, nor vacancies be filled up, 'till his Grace the D—— of —— receives another express from Bareges.

When a certain Lord went abroad on his travels, he left orders to send him, or remit in bills from one capital house, 100,000l. which were actually remitted to him in three days after his arrival in France.

According to letters from Genoa, dated October 4, no less than 2000 Spanish Jesuits had arrived there, within ten days, from Corsica, where they had met with a second expulsion from the French, and were all set out for the Ecclesiastical state.

November 1. We are told that a warrant went over with the last troops from Ireland, to bring hither an American Orator.

It is said that since a certain nobleman has been in France, more money has been remitted to him than used to support his dignity in England for seven years.

We hear that in consequence of Lord Chatham's resignation of the privy seal, Hans Stanley, Esq; has resigned his employment of cofferer, and Lord Cornwallis the post of Lord chief justice in Eyre.

The late conference with a great personage we are told was on the affairs of the colonies.

'Tis said opinions of several great men in the cabinet have been most respectfully delivered to a great personage in writing, and signed by their names.

Among other rumours, it is whispered that a patriotic alderman will move for an enquiry concerning the three millions, which were said to have disappeared a few years since from a certain great office; while some assert, that the enquiry is of a more general nature, and particularly regards the late peace, more especially the negotiators employed in bringing it about.

His Danish Majesty in order to increase the commerce of his dominions, has declared the Port of Glucksstadt a free Port, and abolished all duties upon vessels, which may pass the winter there, as well as all payments upon merchandize passing through that place.

November 3. It is said to be a resolution of a certain great board, that the proceedings of the incendiary leaders of the discontented party in New-England, amount to a treasonable offence; and that means will be taken to deal with them accordingly.

Yesterday the Earl of Bristol had the honour to kiss his Majesty's hand on being appointed Lord Privy Seal.

November 5. It is thought that the intended application of the popular patriot to an august Assembly, for a redress of his grievances, will be productive of warmer altercation and debate than any point that has been agitated in the present reign.

The Earl of Pembroke is absolutely set out from France on a visit to the celebrated Paoli.

We are told, there have been lately overtures made to the courts of France and Spain by a certain republic, to purchase the Isle of Orleans in the river Mississippi, in order to extend settlements along the Western parts of that noble river.

November 8. Sunday Sir Jeffery Amherst had the honour of a long conference with his Majesty at St. James's; and it is said that he is not only restored to the chief command of the royal American regiment, and appointed colonel of the third regiment of foot, but will be shortly appointed a British Peer: and, which must be pleasing to our military readers, we are assured that these marks of favour, so worthily bestowed, have sprung from the royal heart, without the least of ministerial influence.

It is rumoured that a public investigation of a great man's late conduct in the law, will speedily take place in an august Assembly.

We hear, that a certain N——n will make a motion against admitting any but members into a certain house to hear their debates.

It is confidently reported, that a great officer in the land service has expressly stipulated not to be sent to North-America, at least on the present occasion.

We are informed, that a certain political oration, which now talks of hostilities and augmenting the forces, was modelled in a very different manner about ten days ago, and breathed nothing but peace and harmony, owing, it is thought, to a certain great man's being now out who was then in, but what is still more extraordinary, he has been the maker of each.

NOVEMBER 10.

His Majesty's most gracious answer to the address of the house of peers, in parliament assembled.

"My Lords,—I receive with great satisfaction the assurances you give, of your resolution to pursue the commercial interests of this country; and your readiness to support the honour of my crown, and the rights of my people. Your zealous concurrence in every measure that can bring relief to my people is well known to me; nor do I doubt of the attention you will always give to any real grievances of my American subjects. The strong assurances I receive from you at the same time, of your determination to vindicate the just legislative authority of parliament over all the dominions of my crown, deserves my warmest approbation."

Tuesday there upwards of 400 members in the house of commons. The same day the house of peers were up soon, but the house of commons sat late.

Tuesday night, at a quarter after ten o'clock, her Majesty was safely delivered of a PRINCESS, at the Queen's palace. Her Majesty and the young Princess are as well as can be expected.

It is now reported, that a lord lieutenant will be appointed for the whole continent of North-America, in the like manner as one is now appointed for Ireland, and that all the present governors will be continued under him.

The PARTNERSHIP of
GODFREY & GADSDEN
Expiring with the present Year,

THEY return their thanks to their FRIENDS and CUSTOMERS for their favours received, and being under a necessity of closing their concerns as soon as possible, they will be additionally obliged to those indebted to them, to discharge the same this crop, that they may be enabled to settle the demands that may be against the copartnership: And, as there is a very large amount of debts in open accompts, that have been long standing, they must insist on the same being paid, or otherwise settled to their satisfaction, as a neglect of so reasonable a demand, will be attended with disagreeable consequences.

Rice, Deer-Skins and Indico, such as we shall approve of, will be taken in payment, at the market price, if offered to us on its arrival in Charles-Town. [t.f.]

TO BE SOLD,

(And entered upon the first day of April next)

THE Lot, Stores and Wharf, in George-Town, now occupied by Messrs. Godfrey & Gadsden, being in the best situation for trade. Also three other Lots, adjoining. Any person inclinable to purchase the same, may apply to CHRISTOPHER GADSDEN.

THOMAS GADSDEN,

Begs leave to acquaint his FRIENDS, that lately favoured him with their custom and assistance, when in partnership with Mr. GODFREY,

THAT he intends to carry on BUSINESS in his own name alone, after the close of this year, and will therefore be obliged to them for a CONTINUANCE of their FAVOURS, as he will endavour to keep up a GOOD ASSORTMENT of such GOODS as are usually imported into this province, which he is determined to sell at the most reasonable rates:——Among those on hand, he has printed Linens and Cottons, at 10*s.* and 13/9. per yard, also a great variety of LINEN DRAPERY GOODS, at Nine for One, CASH, by the piece or quantity.

Rice, Deer-Skins, and Indico (such as he may approve of) will always be taken, at the market price, in payment of accompts.

☞ WHO is in want of a good, clean, and orderly COOK, on hire, or to purchase.

In the COUNCIL-CHAMBER, the 9th day of December 1768.

PRESENT,

His Excellency the GOVERNOR, in COUNCIL.

HIS Majesty's Surveyor-General, having reported to his Excellency, That several of the parties, who had obtained orders to have plats of land that were out of date in his office, certified to them, had nevertheless neglected to carry them any further, whereby other people were prevented from applying for them, and neither taxes nor quit-rents accrued from the said lands; His Excellency, taking the same into consideration, was pleased, by the advice of the Board, to direct, That, if any person shall hereafter obtain an order, to have an elapsed plat certified to him, and shall not carry the same into a grant within three months thereafter, it shall be again deemed out of date: And that this order be published in the Gazettes.

CHARLES TOWN, January 5.

ACCORDING to our laſt advices from Boſton, every thing continued perfectly quiet there, the ſteps taken by the committee of Convention, in September laſt, having had this good effect, that tho' the people complained loudly of grievances, thoſe of a ſtanding army and the want of a proper legiſlature more eſpecially, yet they were determined not to ſuffer themſelves to be provoked to any one action wherein their natural rights and the conſtitutional laws of the land would not juſtify them.——His Excellency General Gage, leaving the command of the troops to Col. Pomeroy, was returned to New-York——and Lord William Campbell, with the detachment of battalion men of the 59th regiment, was returned to Halifax.

The Aſſembly of Georgia have finiſh'd ſome buſineſs, and the Governor has put an end to their exiſtence, as a branch of the legiſlature. [See the third column of the next page.]

His Majeſty's D. Poſtmaſter Genneral for the Southern Diſtrict of North-America has been pleaſed to fix on the Third Wedneſday in every Month for making up the Mails for Great-Britain, to go by His Majeſty's four Packet-Boats which have been lately appointed to ſail immediately between Falmouth and Charles-Town. A Mail will accordingly be made up, at the General Poſt-Office, on Wedneſday the 17th Inſtant, to go by the Le Deſpencer, Capt. Talbott, the firſt of theſe new Packet Boats. Another is daily expected, for which a Mail will be made up on Wedneſday the 15th of February.

His Majeſty's ſloop Martin, Capt. Hayward, is arrived at Cape-Fear, from Halifax, after a paſſage of 35 days.——We do not hear from thence, that his Excellency Governor Tryon has any intention to come here this winter.

"Thurſday laſt departed this life, in the 42d year "of his age, much lamented, the ingenious Mr. "WILLIAM JOHNSON (well known in America by "his Lectures and Experiments in Electricy, and "here, by the excellent plan he had formed for an "Engliſh School) whoſe death may be juſtly reckoned a loſs to the public, and is an irreparable "one to his family."

The 26th paſt died, Mr. George Livingſton, an eminent Factor in this town.

Sunday laſt ſailed for her ſtation at Jamaica, His Majeſty's Sloop Druid, commanded by Capt. John Jackſon.

On Monday night died here, Mr. Robert Davies, in the 108th year of his age.

Laſt Tueſday Mr. John Webb, Merchant, was married to Miſs Polly Dougby, daughter to the late Mr. Thomas Dougby.

Laſt Monday died, Mr. George Gordon, of Jamaica, who lately came here for the recovery of his health.

SAVANNAH, (in Georgia) December 28.

ON Saturday the 24th inſtant, about one o'clock, the Houſe of Aſſembly ſent an addreſs to the Governor, wherein, after obſerving, that they had ſat longer than uſual at this ſeaſon of the year, in order to compleat ſome bills that they judged were immediately neceſſary, they requeſted, that his Excellency would be pleaſed to aſſent to ſuch as were paſſed; and as they had ſeveral other neceſſary bills under conſideration, and being very deſirous of finiſhing the whole buſineſs of the ſeſſion as ſpeedily as poſſible, they only deſired to be adjourned till the 9th of January next. Upon which the Governor aſked, when the bills would be ready? and was told by ſix o'clock in the evening: He then directed the Gentlemen who brought the addreſs, to report to the houſe, that he would be at the Council Chamber at ſix o'clock, in order to aſſent to the bills; and about five o'clock Mr. WYLLY (who was Speaker of the former Aſſembly) produced to the houſe the Circular Letter from the BOSTON Aſſembly, and alſo a Circular Letter from the Houſe of Burgeſſes in VIRGINIA, which were received by the houſe, and ordered to be entered on the journals; and then the houſe immediately came to the following reſolutions, viz.

RESOLVED, That it is the opinion of this commitee, that a dutiful and loyal addreſs be forthwith prepared, from this houſe, to our moſt gracious Sovereign, and tranſmitted to the agent for this province, by the honourable the Speaker, ſetting forth our indubitable right, and imploring relief from the grievances and burthens which, by the late acts of parliament for raiſing a revenue in America, this province, in common with the other colonies, is now ſubjected to and laboures under.

The ſaid reſolution being again read, was agreed to by the houſe.

RESOLVED, That from the inherent right of the ſubject to petition the throne, for redreſs of grievances, a right allowed and confirmed by the act of William & Mary, the ſaid letters do not appear, to this houſe, of "a dangerous and factious tendency," but, on the contrary, in the opinion of this houſe, only tend to a juſtifiable union of ſubjects aggrieved, in lawful and laudable endeavours to obtain redreſs, by an application founded upon, and expreſſive of duty and loyalty to the beſt of Kings, a becoming reſpect for the parliament of Great-Britain, and an equitable and natural affection for our mother country, and ariſes from the tender and commendable attention of theſe colonies to the natural rights and liberties of the Britiſh colonies in America, and to which they are undeniably entitled, upon the happy principles of our conſtitution.

RESOLVED, That copies of this reſolution be, by the Speaker of this houſe, tranſmitted to the Speaker of the houſe of repreſentatives of the province of Maſſachuſets-Bay, and to the Speaker of the houſe of burgeſſes in Virginia; and that they be acquainted by him, that this houſe approves of the meaſures by them purſued, to obtain redreſs of our common grievances, alſo of the method by them taken of communicating theſe meaſures to the other provinces on the continent.

Theſe reſolves were ſcarce finiſhed, when the Governor came to the council-chamber, and the clerk of the aſſembly (in conſequence of orders given him by the Governor, in caſe theſe letters ſhould, at any time, be received by the houſe) directly carried the minutes up to his Excellency, who immediately required the attendance of the houſe, and, after giving his aſſent to the bills that were ready, diſſolved the aſſembly with the following SPEECH.

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the Aſſembly,

FROM the diſpoſition that appeared amongſt you at the opening of this ſeſſion, I was very hopeful, and flattered myſelf, that it would have been brought to a happy concluſion, and it gives me great concern to find it now otherwiſe, and that you have diſregarded the principal matter I had in charge from the King, and thereby miſſed ſo fair an opportunity of cheriſhing the confidence his Majeſty has in your affections. But, by your receiving and ſhewing countenance and ſupport to the Boſton Letter in the manner you have done, you have laid me under the neceſſity of diſſolving you. You well know that more than ordinary pains has been taken to prevent this event, and if any diſagreeable conſequences ſhould attend it, you will have brought them upon the province by a deliberate act, and it is you, and you only, will have them to anſwer for to your conſtituents: And however you may have ſuffered yourſelves to be influenced by the conduct of other provinces, and whatever you may now think, be aſſured, Gentlemen, that your true liberty, your property, and every thing that is valuable, muſt depend upon a free and uninterrupted courſe of law and government, under the protection and ſupport of the mother-country, and that you cannot poſſibly enjoy theſe invaluable bleſſings without that protection and ſupport: And how can you expect this, or what right can you pretend to it, if you declare yourſelves to be an independent people? And to me it appears a flat and poſitive contradiction to acknowledge "the "Britiſh parliament to be the ſupreme legiſlative power "over the whole Britiſh empire," (of which we are a part) and in the ſame breath, to deny the power of that very parliament over us;—nor can I ſee or admit the propriety of the Americans declaring, "That they chearfully acquieſce in the authority of the "Britiſh parliament to make laws for a neceſſary depen- "dance, and regulating the trade of the colonies," and at the ſame time denying its authority to make laws, which I conceive to be a very looſe and improper jumble or ſyſtem of government and ſubordination, and without any criterion but the mere caprice of the populace; and I preſume, that the authority of the Britiſh parliament muſt be full and compleat, or does not operate at all. And that the power of the Britiſh parliament does extend to America, is a point I never doubted, or heard diſputed till the affair of the Stamp Duty Act: And to ſhew that it does, I ſhall only refer to the proceedings in parliament on the grand debates relative to that act, when I believe there was near 400 members preſent, and only 9 or 10 divided againſt that power; alſo the votes of the houſe of commons of the 24th February 1766, and the ſtatute of the 6th of his preſent Majeſty, chapter 12th.

The diſtinction between internal and external taxes, it is well known here, from its firſt appearance amongſt us, I ſaid I conceived to be a diſtinction without a difference; and I alſo declared, that if it was granted that the Americans were not ſubject to, or could be legally or conſtitutionally taxed by the Britiſh parliament, not being repreſented there, then I apprehend, the ſame reaſon would hold in every caſe, and the ſame objection lye againſt every law made by the Britiſh parliament to affect the colonies, or his Majeſty's ſubjects in them; for it ſeems abſurd to ſay, that the colonies are not bound by Britiſh acts of parliament, impoſing what they call internal taxes, becauſe they have not conſented to ſuch laws, not being repreſented in that parliament, and at the ſame time to admit that they are bound by, and ſubject to other laws made by the ſame parliament. And I do not find that there is any difference or diſtinction in that conſtitutional rule or principle, that no man is bound by any law to which he has not given his aſſent, either in perſon or by repreſentation; but which rule is general, and holds in all caſes, and with reſpect to all laws; and if ſo, the colonies I conceive are either bound by, and ſubject to, all the acts of the Britiſh parliament in which they are mentioned, or are ſubject to none of any kind whatever, and conſequently to be conſidered as independent of the legal or parliamentary power of Great-Britain.

I alſo declared at the ſame time, that if America could be, or was to become independent of the Mother Country, from that day you might date the foundation of your ruin and miſery. Theſe were the ſentiments I declared near three years ago, and which ſtill I retain; and moſt ardently wiſh it had been in my power to prevail on you to be ſo far of my opinion as to have paid due regard to his Majeſty's expectations from you, and to have obſerved a more prudent conduct in that particular, until the matters in difference between Great-Britain and the colonies, and which are now at the cruſh, had been clearly and effectually ſettled and determined: But as things are circumſtanced, there is only one act further remaining for me to do at preſent, which is, by virtue of his Majeſty's authority, and in his name, to diſſolve this Aſſembly, and I do hereby accordingly diſſolve the ſame. JA. WRIGHT.
